

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PowerA Beams Star Trek™ iPhone Cases to PowerA.com

Licensed Star Trek: The Next Generation™ Starfleet Crew Uniform-Themed Cases Available Now -- More Themes Coming Soon

Woodinville, WA. – Stardate May 23, 2013 – Shields up! Red Alert! PowerA today announced that iconic Star Trek: The Next Generation iPhone cases are now available at PowerA.com for $29.99 US. These high-quality cases for iPhone 5 are inspired by three different colors of Starfleet crew uniforms from the long-running Star Trek: The Next Generation television series. Continuing to add to our highly innovative mobile case design, these cases are made of woven fabric on molded ABS plastic with a raised communicator badge detail, allowing Star Trek fans to assimilate their iPhones in style.

“The Star Trek universe is revered by fans around the world,” said Eric Bensussen, President of PowerA. “We were able to get creative with these Star Trek mobile cases, and now fans can be proud and show off their passion for the franchise by taking it with them wherever they boldly go.”

The cases, under license by CBS Consumer Products, are the first of many. Additional designs from the PowerA collection of officially licensed Star Trek cases for mobile phones, including those inspired by Star Trek: The Original Series, will be available later this year.
